

Joined Up for Jobs Forum

Friday 30 August 2019, 9am – 11:30

This month's forum meeting is packed with updates and information and the overall theme of this forum is: Multi-agency and Improved Partnership Working across the JUfJ network

	Agenda
09:15	Lucy Pearson All in Edinburgh Delivery Manager Introduction
09.20	Dr. Adam Burley Consultant Clinical Psychologist Dr. Adam Burley works as a consultant clinical psychologist at the Edinburgh Access Practice, a service dedicated to the provision of care to individuals who struggle to access mainstream care. He also provides input to wide range of public and third sector organisations across the homeless sector. This presentation aims to discuss adversity, how it impacts on relationships, and how psychologically informed approaches can be useful.
10.00	Rhona McLinden Employer Relationship Manager, Capital City Partnership A Joined Up for Business update in line with this month's theme of multi-agency and improved partnership working across the Joined Up for Jobs network.
	Tea and Coffee
10.30	Kate Kelman Strategy and Performance Manager, Capital City Partnership A Joined Up for Jobs and Capital City Partnership update in line with this month's theme of multi-agency and improved partnership working across the Joined Up for Jobs network.
10.45	Grant McDougall Head of Operations, South East Region, Skills Development Scotland

	As Head of Operations responsible for delivery of Careers Information and Guidance Services across 8 local authorities in SE Region. Presentation Title: Scotland's Labour Market Now and in The Future.
11.05	Lucy Pearson All in Edinburgh Delivery Manager Discussing Working Capital and a survey helping to inform the shape of future forums.
11.10	Networking
11.30	Finish