

Joined Up for Jobs Forum

Wednesday 17 February 2021, 10:00 – 12:00

At this month's Joined Up for Jobs Forum we will have updates from Capital City Partnership, Edinburgh FUSE, the City of Edinburgh Council and the Department for Work and Pensions. Attendees will find out about the Parental Employability Support Fund and the five projects which have been awarded funding to support parents in Edinburgh. Chris Nicol will also be running a short training session on the use of labour market data.

The forum will take place on Microsoft Teams. Email paige.evans@capitalcitypartnership.org to register.

	Agenda
10:00	Lucy Pearson (Joined Up for Jobs Chair) Welcomes and introductions.
10:05	Kate Kelman, Capital City Partnership Kate Kelman will give an update on Capital City Partnership activity.
10:10	Calum Nicol, FUSE Update on current and upcoming activities with FUSE and the St James Quarter.
10:15	Susie Donkin, Business Growth and Inclusion (CEC) Susie will be updating on the plans for the rollout of the Young Person Guarantee.
10:20	Catherine Davidson, DWP DWP updates from Catherine Davidson, Senior Employer and Partnership Manager in Edinburgh.
10:30	Craig Dutton, Capital City Partnership Craig will be presenting on the Parental Employability Support Fund which was launched last year by the Scottish Government and has seen five projects awarded funding to support parents in Edinburgh.
11:00	Coffee and networking break
11:15	Chris Nicol, Capital City Partnership Training on use of labour market data.
11:45	Questions and networking
12:00	Close