

50+ PACE Employment Support

Are you 50 or over, recently made redundant or at threat of being made redundant, or has your employment been affected by Covid 19?

The Cyrenians and Access to Industry are offering a free and confidential employability service for Edinburgh residents whose job situation has been impacted by Covid 19.

Who can use our service?

You can access our service if you are an Edinburgh resident, aged 50 + and:

- ✓ Your role has been made redundant as a result of Covid 19.
- ✓ You are on furlough and uncertain of your job security.
- ✓ Your working hours have been affected by Covid 19 and lockdown restrictions.

How We Can Help.

Individuals will be given support to consider their current circumstances and their options moving forward. Options can be getting back into work, volunteering, education, training or even support to achieve a greater sense of stability.

Type of support given.

Support Is Offered to Assist Individuals In Various Ways:

- ✓ Practical advice on getting a job.
- ✓ Redundancy process, your rights and entitlements.
- ✓ Benefits you may be entitled to.
- ✓ Applying for grants and funding
- ✓ Identifying learning & training opportunities.
- ✓ Business start-up.
- ✓ Coping with redundancy-related stress.
- ✓ Signposting to other support agencies.
- ✓ Accessing IT Equipment.

Practical Support to help you find a job.

- ✓ Making Job Applications
- ✓ Creating an Effective CV
- ✓ Interview Skills
- ✓ Making a Career Change
- ✓ Health & Wellbeing
- ✓ Housing Support and Advice
- ✓ Using I.T.
- ✓ Volunteering
- ✓ Discovering and Developing Your Transferrable Skills
- ✓ Training
- ✓ Getting Back into Education

Contact Access to Industry

NoelGuy@accesstoindustry.co.uk

(0131) 260 9721

www.accesstoindustry.co.uk

Contact The Cyrenians

LaurenQuinn@cyrenians.scot

(0131) 475 2629

www.cyrenians.scot

