

Network of Employability Support and Training (NEST) 2022-2025

JUfJ Forum – 24 February 2022

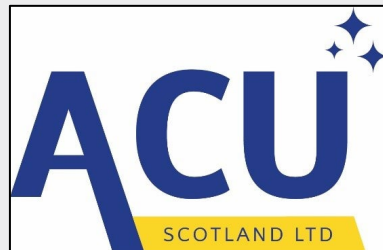

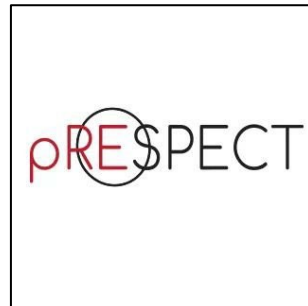

Context

- NEST 2019-22 – 17 projects
- Scottish Government's No One Left Behind (NOLB) phasing
- Labour market changes (COVID)
- Review of contracted provision
- End of grant funded provision
- Review of funded services required

NEST Review

- Coproduction with stakeholders – Spring/Summer 2021
- Tender process – September/October 2021
- 50 applications received (c.£3m funding ask)
- Recommendations to Housing, Homelessness & Fair Work Committee
- Feedback to providers – January/February 2022

NEST 2022-2025

Next Steps

- All projects commence 1 April 2022
- Project details to be added to the JUfJ website
- Programme to be promoted via social media
- Vocational Training Framework
- Blended Employability Service

Questions

Craig Dutton

Contracts and Grants Manager

Capital City Partnership

07960 002 001

Craig.Dutton@capitalcitypartnership.org