Funded Sales Scotland Learner Journey

The learner completes all of their units, utilising both their specialist support and resources and proceeding to submit their work to the agreed deadlines.

Enrolment

Learner meets eligibility criteria and completes the application process. An enrolment pack is issued to the learner, including an individual learner plan and submission dates.

Learners will receive a welcome call from their LSA to introduce themselves and officially welcome them onto their course. During this call, the LSA will ensure all details provided are correct and that the learner has received all of the necessary information and materials they need to start learning.

Get Started

Once the learner has their login

and/or paper-based resource and all of their relevant information, they will begin their learning.

Continued Learner Support The learner's LSA will contact them once every two weeks to ensure they are progressing with their learning. This continues throughout the duration of their course.

Contact may be made regarding the following:

- · Upcoming submissions
- Overdue submissions Learner surveys
- · A general 'check-in' to ensure everything is
- OK from the learner's perspective.

Submission

Once a learner submits theirwork (per unit), they will be notified of receipt. This will then be sent to their Tutor and the learner will receive detailed feedback within seven days via both email and post, outlining whether they have passed their unit or have been referred.

Learner receives a second survey, allowing them to feed back on their overall learning experience.

Achievement

Upon passing all of their units, the learner has now achieved their qualification. The learner is notified of their achievement and their certificate is sent - the learner has gained a nationally recognised qualification!

Qualifications

- Awarding body: TQUK
- SSSC recognised
