

Employment and Career Support for Ukrainians in Scotland

If you are displaced from Ukraine and living in Scotland with the right to work in the UK, there are resources available to help you find work. Find out more by reading below.

Skills Development
Scotland

Skills Development Scotland

Skills Development Scotland is Scotland's Career Service. They offer free support to help you get into employment or training. You can watch their video about creating a CV in Ukrainian. Call 0800 917 8000 to speak to an adviser or to make an appointment in your local area. Translation services are available.

EMPLOYABILITY
in SCOTLAND

Employability in Scotland

Employability services are provided in all local authority areas. They offer help to prepare you for employment, training, education and volunteering.

Parent Club

Parent Club

Parent Club has guidance to help you find work as a parent, including how to get help with childcare.

job help

We'll help you find it

Job Help

Job Help provides information on support, training and advice to help you find your next job.

business gateway
Connect with us

Business Start Up

Business Start Up provides help and advice if you want to start your own business in Scotland. Advice is also available if you have recently started trading.

You can find more information on employment, education and training by reading the Scottish Government guidance for displaced people from Ukraine.

