

Edinburgh's Jobs Strategy

Joined Up for Jobs Forum Agenda

Thursday 28 November 2024

Wheatley Group, 8 New Mart Rd, Edinburgh EH14 1RL

9.30 - 12pm

| | |
|-------|---|
| 9.30 | Welcome Sally McGreevy – Joined Up for Jobs Forum Chair |
| 9.40 | Theme: Intersectionality & barrier (Dictionary definition: the interconnectedness of social categories, such as race, gender, class, sexuality, and ability—all of which shape an individual's experiences and opportunities.) A client may be referred to an organisation because of a single perceived need but often, while working with the client, they may have other needs that are interconnected and impacting on the individual's potential to move into employment that also need to be addressed. The forum will hear from a panel who will discuss approaches to supporting clients who have multiple needs. The panel with representatives from different organisations within Edinburgh: Equalities: Lucy Pearson, Lead Officer Equalities, City of Edinburgh Council; & Euan Hamilton, Equality & Rights Network All in Edinburgh: Megan Wilson, Performance Manager: Enable Works EnCompass: Mark Phillips, Service Manager: Access to Industry Making Work Work: Lynn Houmdi, Senior Learning & Leadership Manager: The Challenges Group Passion4Fussion: Justine Ehimen, Project Coordinator Multi Cultural Family Base (MCFB): Ethelinda Lashley-Scott, Chief Executive Officer Questions from the floor. |
| 10.40 | Break with refreshments |
| 11.00 | Capital City Partnership: Craig Dutton, Head of Contracts and Grants Feedback on the recent CCP provider survey and what CCP are looking to improve based on feedback. |
| 11.15 | Group sessions |
| 12pm | Close |