

IS YOUR ORGANISATION SUPPORTING WOMEN WHILST THEY'RE ON A CAREER BREAK?

MAKING WORK WORK IS HERE TO SUPPORT THEM

Making Work Work is a fully funded programme running throughout the year that supports women in returning to work following a career break.

If you are supporting women who are mothers, have health issues or disabilities, are menopausal, have been made redundant or have relocated to Scotland, please get in touch to find out how we can help them transition to meaningful employment.
